Mother Theresa ... "the hungry and the lonely, not only for food but the Word of God; the thirsty and the ignorant, not only for water but also for knowledge, peace, truth, justice, and love; the naked and the unloved, not only for clothes but for human dignity; the unwanted, the unborn child, the racially discriminated against, the homeless and abandoned, not only for shelter made of bricks, but for a heart that understands, that covers, that loves; the sick, the dying destitute, and the captives, not only in body but also in mind and spirit; all those who have lost all hope and faith in life, the alcoholics and drug addicts and all those who have lost God and who have lost all hope in the power of the Spirit"

We Walk Together in Faith

How do YOU view Poverty?

Pastor Rob Bell says, "There's a popular bumper sticker that reads 'God Bless America,' but hasn't America already been blessed?"

It's easy for us to fall into a mindset of viewing 'our' world as 'the' world, because it's all we generally see. But how does what we have compare to what most people in the world have? Maybe what we have is enough; maybe it's more than enough." Act Now!

The Interfaith Clothing Center Volunteer Opportunity to hang and sort donated merchandise for clients to obtain clothing, household items, school supplies, and infant items. Please join us in outreach, ministry, and fellowship!

Poverty:

- State of being poor: The state of not having enough money to take care of basic needs such as food, clothing, and housing

What is the Interfaith Clothing Center?

Interfaith Clothing Center is one of the programs of Interfaith Works (W's), formerly Community Ministry of Montgomery County. Christ Lutheran is one of the IW's 150 member congregations.

At the Interfaith Clothing Center, donated clothing, household items, school supplies, infant items, toys and children's books are distributed free of charge to low-income residents of Montgomery County. By providing basic necessities free of charge, the clothing center enables its clients to use their scarce financial resources for other pressing needs, such as rent, food, transportation, and healthcare.

The Interfaith Clothing Center serves about 14,000 individuals every year. Clients come from all corners of the County and are young and old, male and female, single and married, and span all races and religions. They are working poor, homeless, disabled, immigrants, parolees, and seniors.

The clothing centers are in need of adults and children to sort and hang donated merchandise. Student Service Learning (SSL) hours are available to student volunteers at the Interfaith Clothing Center. Children are welcome as volunteers at the clothing centers, but need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; lunch and fellowship 1:30—2:30 p.m.
