Reach Up, Reach Out & Grow

September
2004

WE WELCOME YOU!

OUR MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of Christ Lutheran Church is to make disciples of Jesus Christ; to transform all people into fully devoted followers of Jesus Christ.

OUR VISION STATEMENT

Our vision is to be a community of believers making and baptizing disciples so that Christ's forgiveness and healing can be accomplished in the world.

We are a community of believers because God wants us to be something together and represent God with our unified diversity. Our vision is to further God's Kingdom in our midst.

Celebrate Recovery Beginning Soon!

Alcoholism, divorce, sexual abuse and drug addiction are all issues that seriously affect people in the church and the larger community. A sermon or Bible study alone won't solve those problems, but there is hope.

CELC will launch Celebrate Recovery, a fellowship-based healing ministry, at worship on Sunday, Sept. 19 (it normally will meet on Monday nights). Celebrate Recovery, developed at Saddleback Church in California, uses eight recovery principles to help hurting people move beyond their wounds to experience the healing liberty of Jesus Christ:

1. Realize I'm not God. I admit that I am powerless to control my tendency to do the wrong thing and my life is unmanageable.
2. Earnestly believe that God exists, that I matter to him and that he has the power to help me recover.
3. Consciously choose to commit all my life and will to Christ's care and control.
4. Openly examine and confess my faults to God, to myself and to another person whom I trust.
5. Voluntarily submit to any and all changes God wants to make in my life.
6. Evaluate all my relationships. Offer forgiveness to those who have hurt me and, when possible, make amends for harm I've done to others, without expecting any reward.
7. Reserve a daily time with God for prayer, Bible reading and self-examination in order to know God and his will for my life and to gain the power to follow his will.

Celebrate Recovery to Begin Soon

8. Yield myself to be used by God to bring the Good News to others both by my example and by my words.

The eight principles guide us through recovery from addictive, compulsive and dysfunctional behaviors. The steps are parallel to but different from those of Alcoholics Anonymous because Celebrate Recovery applies to all personal problems, not just drinking or drugs. Through practicing these eight steps, we can find peace, serenity, joy and connection to God and others.

Celebrate Recovery is not a replacement for those practicing a 12-step program. Instead, it can be a complement or adjunct to a recovery program. And for those unfamiliar with traditional 12-step programs, it is an opportunity to experience a new way of living, healed from any type of compulsive behavior that it is interfering in your life.

Personal or family problems often are not solvable by one person alone. Yet what you can't do by yourself, we can all do together in Christ Jesus, in healing warmth & celebration and guided by the recovery steps. Celebrate Recovery is the celebration of Christ in the life of the church and its people.

I ask for your prayers for our Celebrate Recovery team and the launching of this new program. I am hopeful that it will bring hope and healing to many of God's people.

Yours in Jesus Christ,
Pastor Marv

Requirements for Celebrate Recovery Leaders

1. Celebrate Recovery leaders must be followers of Christ who are well-ground in their faith;
2. Celebrate Recovery leaders must be willing to participate in a small group with other Celebrate Recovery leaders;
3. Celebrate Recovery leaders must have participated in a 12-step group in the past. Celebrate Recovery assumes leaders already know the 12-step process and how to work within the 12-step experience.

What is this New Document Inside My Weekly Bulletin?

That’s the new and updated “This Week,” which we have renamed the “Week Ahead.” (If you have a more creative name, please let us know!) We are introducing the “Week Ahead” in an attempt to save staff time, be kinder and gentler to our printer, and improve the information-flow at CELC. The previous format for the “This Week” could no longer support the volume of information we need to communicate.

The “Week Ahead” is designed to (1) allow members to quickly find information they need on ministries they are involved and (2) give visitors a comprehensive look at all the ministries available at CELC and a contact name and phone number for each one.

Submissions are due to Jennifer Tessneer by 5 p.m. on the Wednesday before publication. Please email them to jenniferclc@heartmindsoul.com. Please write your submission as you would like it to appear and including the following information: (1) ministry name and a BRIEF explanation; (2) the news of the ministry; (3) meeting time, date and location; (4) a contact person’s name and phone number. Please also specify how long you would like the submission to run. Questions? Please call Jennifer Tessneer at 301-652-5160, ext. 5.

Parents, Get the 2004-05 Year Off to a Good Start!

A 2003 study by researcher George Barna found that parents and the local church must work together to develop children & teens into "spiritual champions." Parents must embrace their God-given role as their children's spiritual leaders, and the church must encourage and equip them for the responsibility (www.barna.org). With this in mind, CELC's youth & family ministry will focus more this year on providing tools and resources to equip parents to raise spiritual champions. We will continue to build upon the small groups and programs already in place for children and youth, but we will work to build a comprehensive ministry to parents as well.

Here are some ways you as parents can get the 2004-2005 year off to a good start:

- Attend the Fall Festival at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 12 to learn more about opportunities for your family at CELC this year;
- Join a small group Bible study where you as parents can be nourished & nurtured;
- Set aside 15-30 minutes at the end of each day to share highs and lows (the best and worst thing about the day), read and discuss a Bible passage, and pray together. This will do wonders for family closeness and spiritual growth;
- Make weekly involvement at CELC a high priority for your family. Faithful and regular participation in worship, Sunday school and other church activities sends a strong message to children about spiritual disciplines and what it means to be committed to their spiritual journey;
- Memorize the youth and family mission statement and recite it to yourself each day, replacing the word "families" with "my children" (or your children's names). This serves as an awesome reminder of the role God has given you as your children's primary faith teacher and mentor. (See mission statement above.)
- Visit Jennifer Tessneer's office to peruse the books, videos and other parenting resources available. (Please feel free to borrow them. Just leave Jennifer a note.)
- Check out the Parenting Resources bulletin board outside Jennifer's office for information, inspiration and lots of freebies.
- Pray, pray, pray!

Questions? Please contact Jennifer Tessneer, minister of family & community care, at 301-652-5160, ext. 5.

Children and youth programs reconvene on Sunday, Sept. 19. To learn more, please attend the Fall Festival at 10:30 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 12.

Happy Grandparents Day to all our Grandparents! (Sept. 12)

An elderly couple and their little grandson, whose face was sprinkled with bright freckles, spent the day at the zoo. Lots of children were waiting in line to get their cheeks painted by a local artist who was decorating them with tiger paws.

"You've got so many freckles, there's no place to paint!" a girl in line said to the little boy.

Embarrassed, the little boy dropped his head. His grandparents knelt down next to him.

"I love your freckles," his grandpa said, tracing his fingers across the child's cheek.

"Me too," said his grandma. "When I was a little girl, I always wanted freckles. Freckles are beautiful."

The boy looked up. "Really?"

"Really!" they said. "Why, just name one thing that's prettier than freckles."

The little boy thought for a moment, peered intently at his grandparents, and softly whispered, "Wrinkles."

Grandparents, thanks for all your love, time, attention, teaching and wisdom. Thanks for loving your grandchildren!
